Sentences vs. Fragment: Floyd Danger AdventureS vs. Fragment: Floyd Danger AdventureIn this fast-paced treasure hunt game identifies and builds children complete sentences, learn to avoid sentence fragments and avoid sentences.5th gradeReading & Writing By fifth grade, kids understand should understand their basic parts of speech and how to become the meaning of a word. The focus of vocabulary instruction shifts to understanding reading, helping children see how words function in stories, poems and essays, while teaching them how to understand different types of texts. Children then put their skills to the test by reading and writing different types of texts. Through Word Game Time's free videos, children learn about some of these types of texts, including reading poems and writing research articles. Fun games and worksheets will also help kids build their reading comprehension and vocabulary skills, while also building their typing skills so they can write texts of their own.
